Good News Feature:

The Grade 5 Teaching Team at Nakasuk School, Iqaluit, is off to a solid start this year! To ensure consistency in the delivery of curriculum, teachers meet regularly for Team Planning. Recently, students from all Grade 5 classes baked Bannock. The recipe and lesson was featured in the Nelson, Math Focus Student Resource Book. Upon completion of baking, students completed a table that demonstrated extending and increasing patterns using the ingredients required for multiple batches of bannock.

I commend the students in each class for their hard work and thank Samantha Roberts, Ashleigh Hogan, and Megan Martin, Grade 5 Teachers, for ensuring student learning is authentic, meaningful and relevant. The bannock was delicious!
