Good News Feature: OUTREACH PROGRAM BENEFITS OUR STUDENTS!

We sincerely thank our Partners in Education for their genuine interest in our students and support of programming and curriculum initiatives at Nakasuk School! Last month our children received generous gifts of time and various items.

Nakasuk School hosted 10 Nunavut Teacher Education Program (NTEP) Interns from Nunavut Arctic College. The Interns presented Teacher Program shirts to students in their classes.

On Hallowe'en, Jason Bailey donated 35 pumpkins to classes and Canadian North donated 2 pumpkins. A special draw was held in the school gym and the pumpkins were presented to some very pleased and happy students. We thank them for making our Hallowe'en activities even more special for our students!
